

- (b) A compound microscope contains two thin lenses of focal length 6.0 mm and 40.0 mm, respectively. The lenses are separated by a distance of 200 mm. The final image is formed 250 mm from the eye lens. Calculate
- (i) The distance of the object from the objective lens
 - (ii) The magnifying power of the microscope. [5 marks]